

CS544 Final – January 2022

Before:

Be sure to do the W4D3 Review on Sakai– it provides 4 out of the 100 exam points, and needs to be submitted before the exam starts!

When / Where:

The exam will start at on Thursday the 3rd of Feb at 1pm in the V32. Naem will be there to proctor the exam.

The exam will stop at 3:30pm, most students should have finished before then. If there are a significant amount of people not done at 3:30pm everyone should still hand in – I will adjust the grading.

How:

- You can bring one page (front and back) of handwritten notes
- Please try to fit all answers on the provided pages, they will be printed single-sided so if need be you can use the back. One blank sheet of paper will be provided for any scratch needs.
- No bathroom breaks allowed (be sure to empty your bladder before hand)
- No cellphones allowed, either leave them at home or drop them off at the front.
- No exam questions (Naem is once again our only procotor and will stay at the front).

What:

- 4% the review you have to submit to me before the exam starts
- Theory questions 21% about 7 questions, each question will be 3 points
- Core Spring questions about 25% (what is the output, write an Aspect class that ...)
- Repo, Service, Controller (including config) questions 50%
